NOTARY BARRED FROM JURY

Justice Gould Rules He Is a Federal Employee.

Disqualified from Sitting in Criminal Case or Civil Hearing Where Uncle Sam Is Party.

A notary public is disqualified to sit as a juror in a criminal case or at a civil hearing when the United States is a party to the cause, according to an opinion of Justice Gould, rendered yesterday. There are about 1,000 notaries in the District, all of whom are regarded as employees of the government.

At the recent trial of Walter Dolby, charged with an attempted assault on a seven-year-old child, Samuel W. Cockrell, a notary public, was a member of the jury that convicted the former soldier. When the information that Mr. Cockrell held that office reached Attorney Matthew E. O'Brien, representing the prisoner, he made a motion for a new trial, on the plea that a notary is under the control and in the power of the government, and that he is thereby conclusively presumed to be biased. Justice Gould granted the new trial.

In holding the notary disqualified, Justice Gould accepted the contention of Attorney O'Brien that the notary is an absolute creature of the government, appointed by the President, having the duties and fees prescribed by the legislative branch of the government and his bond approved by the judiciary. His appointment not only comes at the recommendation of the Attorney General, but is revocable at the discretion of the appointing power, Mr. O'Brien claimed. Following the United States Supreme Court decision in the Crawford case, disqualifying a clerk in a postal substation at a drug store, the court held that he was bound to hold the notary disqualification, because of the much closer relation sustained by that officer.

HOUSE BRINGS $3,000.

Seaton Street Property Disposed of by Winthrop Estate.

Frank O'Neill has purchased lot 233, square 150, occupied by premises 1740 Seaton street, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth, U and V streets northwest. The lot has a frontage of sixteen feet by a uniform depth of ninety feet, to a twenty-foot alley, and is improved by a two-story brick dwelling, with six rooms, modern bath, and latrine heat. It is understood that approximately $3,000 was paid for the property, which was sold for the Winthrop estate.

BIG SAVING FOR TREASURY.

No Charges to Be Paid for Transporting Coins.

By refusing to pay the charges on transportation of fractional silver and minor coins, the Treasury Department will save about $100,000 a year.

Secretary MacVeagh has sent out a circular to officials of the Treasury to the effect that Congress has failed to make appropriations for these charges, canceling all former regulations along that line.

During the last twenty-nine years the government has paid out between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 just to accommodate those who desired to exchange or redeem different classes of government security.

RAILROADS SCORE VICTORY.

Official Classification of Freight Will Not Be Suspended.

What is regarded as a victory for the railroads was the announcement made yesterday by the Interstate Commerce Commission that it would not suspend official classification No. 35, which involves more than 6,000 items and which was filed to go into effect to-day.

The commission has been fairly overwhelmed with protests against the proposed classification of freight for the last month, the shippers claiming that a new classification would result in heavily increased rates.

COL. LANGFITT IN CHARGE.

Army Engineer Will Look After Washington Improvements.

Announcement is made of the appointment of Lieut. Col. William C. Langfitt, Corps of Engineers, to take charge of the Washington aqueduct and filtration plant, the river and harbor works, and the defenses of Washington. Col. Langfitt, who has been engineer-secretary of the light-house board, will be relieved of that position to-day by Capt. Warren T. Hamlin, Corps of Engineers.

Col. William E. Craighill, of the light-house board, Col. Langfitt's predecessor, recently resigned, and the action taken by the War Department in appointing Col. Langfitt to fill the vacancy was taken some time ago.

Col. Langfitt is a native of Virginia, but received his appointment to West Point from Ohio. Upon him devolves the duty of improving Potomac Park, for which an appropriation of $150,000 has been made by Congress.

CARLTON IS SENTENCED.

Digamist Goes to Penitentiary for Stealing Wife's $1,800.

Justice Gould yesterday sentenced Frederick Carlton, alias Ackert, who was recently convicted of stealing $1,800 from Mrs. Anna Smith, to serve four years and six months in the Leavenworth, Kans., penitentiary.

Carlton married Mrs. Smith in Alexandria, Va., in November, 1908, while he had a wife in Centerville, Mass.

GET YOUR DOG TAG TO-DAY.

New Licenses Must Be Procured at District Building.

New dog licenses must be procured to-day. The tags should be affixed as soon as possible.

In order to custom, the poundmaster will continue to collect all untagged dogs. As soon as the rush of applicants to the license bureau of the District Building has subsided the poundmaster will wage a vigorous campaign.

The license will be ready for distribution to-day and may be obtained at the office set apart for that purpose, on the first floor in the tax office.

INFANTILE DEATHS FEWER.

Heat Wave Has Little Effect on City's Health.

According to the report of Health Officer Woodward, the heat wave has had practically no ill effects, and the number of infantile deaths are decreasing.

Fifteen children under two years old died during the last week from hot weather causes, less than half the number for the corresponding period last year.

There are few diphtheria and typhoid fever cases. It is the opinion of the health department that the active campaign for city cleanliness and for care of babies is responsible for the healthy condition.

SWIMMING POOLS OPEN TO-DAY.

Youngsters Will Make Wild Dash for Morning Plunge.

To-day marks the opening of the new municipal swimming pools, which is the signal for a wild dash of youngsters.

The gates of the new pools will be opened at 10 o'clock, and there will be a large crowd on hand early.

Delay in connection of sewers in the pools for colored bathers will prevent their opening until about July 10. On Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, the beach will be placed at the convenience of women and their escorts from 7 until 10 a. m., and on Wednesdays from 2 until 6 p. m.

For the benefit of government clerks swimmers will be called out at 4 p. m., and the pools will be reopened at 4:30. Bathing suits may be rented at the beach. A charge will be made for the use of an individual dressing room.

G. A. R. RANKS THINNING FAST

Estimated that 32,000 Civil War Veterans Die Annually.

Calculations Based on Pension Office Statistics Put Last Survivor on List in 1955.

The ranks of the G. A. R. are thinning with the passing of each year, and it is estimated that 32,000 among those on the pension list of civil war veterans die annually, which is equivalent to ninety a day. How many of the "unknown army," the veterans of the North and South, die each year it is impossible to estimate.

There are no such records of the Confederate dead such as are kept of the federal forces, because of the absence of any general pension service. But out of the vast federal army of 2,213,355 who fought in the civil war, only 899,000 were living in 1900. The actual number of survivors on the pension list June 30, 1900, was but 383,861.

There are no surviving veterans of the Revolution or the war of 1812. The last Revolutionary hero, Daniel F. Bakeman, of Freedom, N. Y., died in 1893, aged 109 years, and the last direct pensioner of that war was Estha Damon, of Plymouth, Vt., who died in 1906.

The only pensioner on account of the Revolutionary War now living is Mrs. Phoebe M. Palmer, of Brookfield, N. Y., who is eighty-nine years old. Her father fought in the Revolution.

It is predicted, according to Pension Office statistics, that the government will be paying the pension of the last survivor of the civil war in 1955.

WIFE ALLEGES CRUELTY.

Mrs. Ernest Buchler Files Suit for Absolute Divorce.

Alleging cruelty, intense jealousy, and infidelity, Emma E. Buchler yesterday filed suit for absolute divorce from Ernest Buchler. They were married February 21, 1900, in this city.

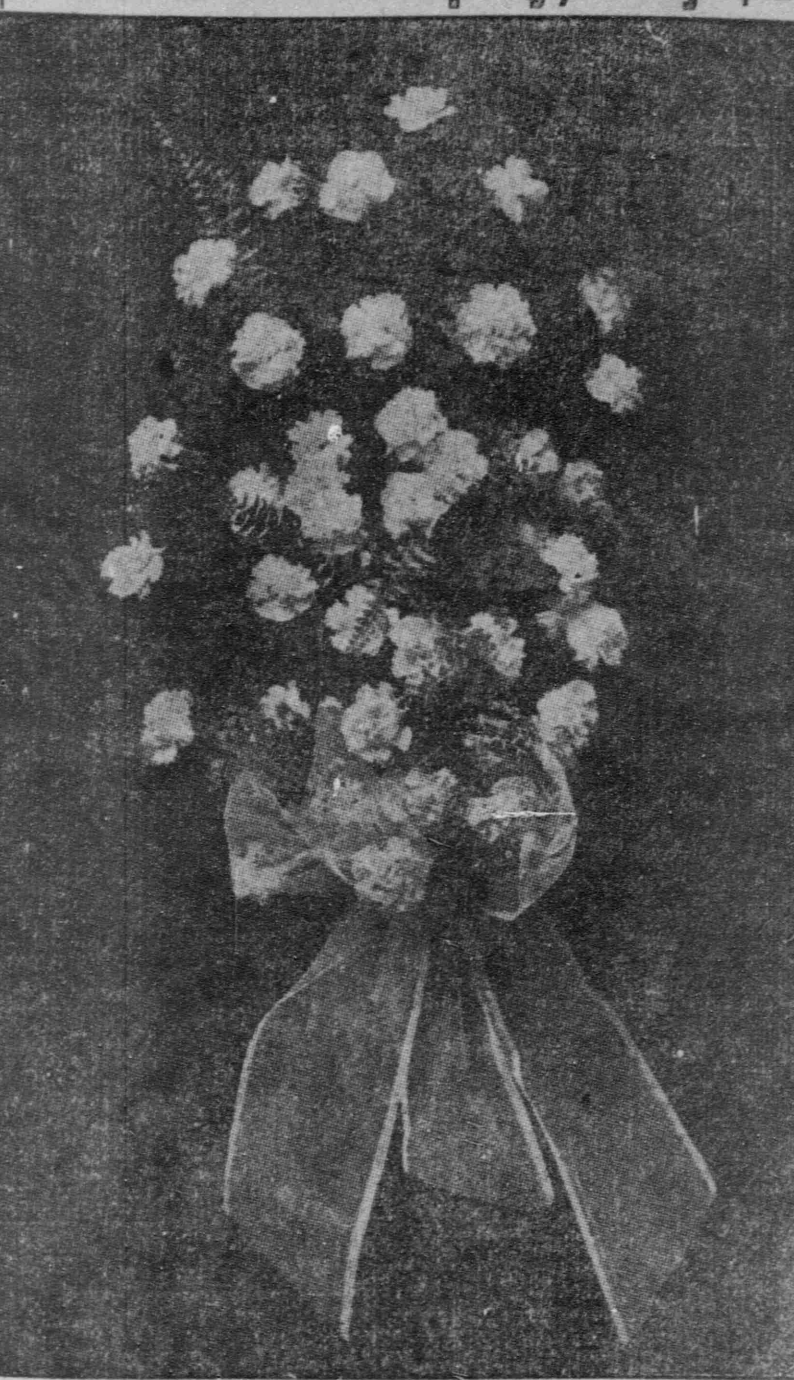

The plaintiff asks the court to be permitted to resume her maiden name, Emma Abernathy.

Mary O'Brien yesterday instituted proceedings against Maurice O'Brien for maintenance, alleging that by reason of increasing age and physical ailments she is unable to earn a livelihood, and that the defendant refuses to contribute in any manner to her support. They were married in this city June 19, 1885, and there are no children.
